RELEASE NUMBER : 12-02-01
DATE : February 7, 2012
TYPE OF INCIDENT : Bank Robbery
DETAILS :

On Tuesday February 7, 2012 at approximately 1320 hours, the Amador County Sheriff's Office received a 911 Emergency call from a teller at the Wells Fargo Bank, 9454 Main Street, Plymouth. The caller reported that two male suspects, wearing dark color wigs, dark color jackets and blue denim pants had just robbed the bank and fled on foot.

Amador County Sheriff's Deputies responded and were on scene within minutes. Amador County Sheriff's Detectives and a Crime Scene Investigator responded to the scene to conduct the initial investigation, including interviews, crime scene processing and area canvas. An Amador County Sheriff's Canine attempted a track to determine the suspect's direction of flight. A California Highway Patrol aircraft also responded and assisted by conducting an area check.

The investigation determined that the two suspects entered the bank and approached a teller. The first suspect brandished a handgun, announced this was a bank robbery, and that he did not want to hurt anyone. That suspect then entered the bank vault and took an undisclosed amount of large bills. The second suspect, who was also brandishing a handgun ordered tellers to provide bills from the cash drawers. While the robbery was occurring a patron entered the bank. The employees and the patron were then ordered into the bank vault and told not to exit the vault for 5 minutes. The two suspects then fled on foot in an unknown direction.

SERVICE ● INTEGRITY ● TEAMWORK ● EXCELLENCE
